

Research WW2 ending

- What does VE Day stand for?
- What and who are we remembering?
 - When was the first VE day?
- What were the events leading up to it?
 - How did the people of Britain react?
- What did people do to celebrate the first VE day?

Create a fact-file, poster or information booklet.

Creative Learning Ideas

- Design a special VE day medal
- Draw, sketch or paint to create VE day inspired artwork – maybe a soldier or something depicting wartime
- Listen to some wartime music and create a dance or copy one already in existence
 - Make a Union Jack flag
- Create a poster or bunting to hang in your house

War Time Recipes

Look war time recipes and cook one for your family

- Eggless sponge
 - Soup
- Cheese and potato dumplings
 - Bread pudding
 - Bubble and squeak
- Carrot cake, carrot scones or carrot biscuits

National Anthem

Listen to the British National Anthem with your family (and sing along)

Wear Red, White or Blue on Friday 8th
May

Plan a VE day Party or Celebration.

Can you plan and prepare a VE Day celebration for the 8th May at home for your family?

- Make party invitations
 - Party game ideas
- Design and make bunting, party hats and decorations
 - Competitions and prizes
 - Plan a party menu

Will there be music and dancing?

Creative writing

Write a poignant war time poem

